MARIN CURSILLO—THE BEST WEEKEND OF YOUR LIFE

LIVE YOUR FAITH WITH OTHER CHRISTIANS IN A TRULY BEAUTIFUL SETTING.

WHAT IS CURSILLO?

Marin Cursillo is an experience of Christian community, which celebrates the Gospel message in today's world. It's purpose is to increase our understanding of what it means to be a Christian and to share ways that will sustain us on our lifetime faith journey.

WHAT CAN I EXPECT?

- A wide variety of experiences shared within a supportive, safe group.
- An informal atmosphere of fellowship and trust which facilitates spiritual growth.
- An opportunity to renew your Christian faith through a deeper look at Gospel teachings, Sacraments, devotions, prayer and sharing.
- An experience of unconditional Christian love and community.

A typical Cursillo weekend is attended by 40-60 participants. This includes both the "candidates" and the serving "team". "Candidates" come from all walks of life seeking an enriching Christian spiritual experience. The Rector or Rectora (lay persons) lead the team under the guidance of Roman Catholic and Episcopal Spiritual Directors (clergy). Team members will share with you through talks, discussions, music, prayer, meals and laughter. The team has spent the preceding months preparing this weekend especially for you.

The weekend starts on Thursday evening and concludes late afternoon on Sunday. You will also be invited to a Homecoming dinner and a follow-up evening reunion shortly after the men's and women's weekends.

ENJOY A WONDERFUL 3 DAY CHRISTIAN RETREAT!!

HOW MUCH DOES A WEEKEND COST?

Your contribution for the Marin Cursillo Weekend is $100 for food and lodging. This amount has been reduced from the $250 approximate cost by generous contributions from the Marin Cursillo Community.
